

The following is translated from the Mishna Berura (B'ur Halacha, Chapter 448, opening words: "בדבר" quoting the Me'ar Chayim and others):

... and one must specify each sort of Chametz that one has, and not write merely "I am selling anything that may have Chametz", as it is similar to selling unknown items for which one doesn't know their value. Instead, one should specify each type of item - the actual valuation doesn't have to be made before Pesach, but a condition can be set with the Gentile that the measurement or valuation will be taken place after Pesach.
